Welcoming, inclusive, engaging, and global Revel(TM) Art History brings the history of art to life for a new generation of students. It is global in scope, inclusive in its coverage, and warm and welcoming in tone. The guiding vision of Art History is that the teaching of art history survey courses should be filled with equal delight, enjoyment, and serious learning, while fostering an enthusiastic and educated public for the visual arts. The Sixth Edition has been revised to reflect new discoveries, recent research, and fresh interpretive perspectives, as well as to address the changing needs of both students and educators. Revel is Pearson's newest way of delivering our respected content. Fully digital and highly engaging, Revel replaces the textbook and gives students everything they need for the course. Informed by extensive research on how people read, think, and learn, Revel is an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience -- for less than the cost of a traditional textbook. NOTE: Revel is a fully digital delivery of Pearson content. This ISBN is for the standalone Revel access card. In addition to this access card, you will need a course invite link, provided by your instructor, to register for and use Revel.

Conceived from the ground-up as a streamlined, interactive digital program that eliminates the need for a conventional environmental science textbook, A Changing Planet provides the perfect foundation for an active and highly relevant course with a focus on key concepts and data literacy. A Changing Planet consists of 20 chapters with individual topics that are organized into succinct modules, which allow instructors to easily customize environmental science concepts to best support their unique teaching style and goals. The program's focus on foundational concepts ensures that students arrive prepared for class and ready to engage in problem solving, discussion, and exploring the most interesting aspects of environmental science. This "read a little, do a little" approach helps students gain a solid foundation in environmental science in a concise but conceptually rigorous way. REVEL(tm) is Pearson's newest way of delivering our respected content. Fully digital and highly engaging, REVEL offers an immersive learning experience designed for the way today's students read, think, and learn.
